

17-20 июня 2011 года в Московском государственном университете пройдет 25-я конференция Европейской ассоциации корееведения (AKSE).

25th AKSE BIENNIAL CONFERENCE
JUNE 17–20, 2011
CALL FOR PAPERS AND FIRST NOTICE

The Association for Korean Studies in Europe invites you to attend its 25th Biennial Conference in Moscow, Russia, on June 17–20, 2011. The Conference will be hosted by the International Center for Korean Studies of Moscow State University, with the support of the Academy of Korean Studies (AKS).

Those who wish to present a paper at the conference should send the title of their proposed paper and a summary of approximately 1000 words (in English or Korean), plus a bibliography, and state the Subject Area (i.e. Pre-modern History, Modern History, Modern Korean Society, Religions and Philosophy, Linguistics, Anthropology and Folklore, Literature, and Arts and Archaeology).

Both individual papers and panels proposals will be accepted, but the formation of panels (minimum 3 presenters) is encouraged. Panel organizers should send in the panel proposal, consisting of the Panel Title, Key Words, and a Panel Abstract. The panel organizer should also provide a list of panel participants (both presenters and discussants, with their institutional affiliation) and 500 word abstracts of the respective panel papers (with title and key words).

Proposals must be submitted as an e-mail attachment in MS Word format (Times New Roman font, 12 point type, interlinear space 1, margins 2.5 cm) to the Secretary of AKSE, Dr. Pavel Leshakov: akse2011@gmail.com. Please, use your last name as a file name (smith.doc, etc.). Deadline for receiving proposals is October 31, 2010

Notification of acceptance will be sent by December 31, 2010. If accepted, full text papers should be sent to the Secretary before
April 15, 2011

Please announce your intention to participate by e-mail by February 01, 2011. If you do not propose to present a paper but nevertheless want to take part in the conference, please announce your intention to participate by e-mail (preferably) or normal mail (address as below) .

1. I intend to attend the 2011 AKSE Conference in Moscow

NAME (surname first):
Title: Prof., Dr., Mr., Ms.
Academic Affiliation and Address:
Postal Address (if different from above):
E-mail Address:
Telephone (work):
Telephone (home/mobile):
Fax:

2. I would like to present a panel / a paper at the AKSE 2011 Conference in Moscow

Title of panel
Title of paper:

The Second Notice will only be sent to those who have responded to this First Notice.

Further information:
Dr. Pavel Leshakov
Ms. Ksenia Khazizova
International Center for Korean Studies
Moscow State University
11 Mokhovaya St.
125009 Russia
Tel./fax: +7-495-629-4431
akse2011@gmail.com

For additional information regarding the conference consult the AKSE Homepage:
<http://www.akse.uni-kiel.de>